STANDING ORDERS

Based on Model Standing Orders 2018 from the Norfolk Association of Local Councils (NALC).

Standing Orders are the written rules of a local Council, which are essential to regulate the proceedings of a meeting. A Council may also use Standing Orders to confirm or refer to various internal organisational and administrative arrangements. They are not the same as the policies of a Council, but they may refer to them.

Local councils operate within a wide statutory framework. NALC model Standing Orders incorporate and reference many statutory requirements to which councils are subject. It is not possible for the model Standing Orders to contain or reference all the statutory or legal requirements which apply to local councils. For example, it is not practical for model Standing Orders to document all obligations under data protection legislation. The statutory requirements to which a council is subject apply whether or not they are incorporated in a council's Standing Orders.

The model Standing Orders do not include model financial regulations, which are Standing Orders to regulate and control the financial affairs and accounting procedures of a local council. The financial regulations, as opposed to the Standing Orders of a council, include most of the requirements relevant to the council's Responsible Financial Officer.

Model Standing Orders that are in bold type contain statutory requirements and should be adopted without amendment. Model Standing Orders not in bold are designed to help councils operate effectively but do not contain statutory requirements, so they may be adopted as drafted or amended to suit a council's needs. For convenience, the word "councillor" is used in model Standing Orders and, unless the context suggests otherwise, includes a non-councillor with or without voting rights.
